Community Details

Located in Celina, between Prosper and McKinney, the community is just a short drive from Hwy. 380, US 75-Central Expressway and the Dallas North Tollway.

Mustang Lakes boasts stunning natural beauty with more than 60 acres dedicated to open areas and features eight lakes, numerous creeks, and a canopy of native oak trees. Additional natural amenities include a 20-acre central park with trails, mature trees, a private lake and island. A 5-acre stocked lake with an island features a fishing deck and overlook, and nearly 10 miles of trails weave throughout the community. On-site amenities include resort-style swimming pools and cabanas, a state-of-the-art fitness center, amphitheater, competition tennis courts, and playground.

Mustang Lakes is served by the highly-acclaimed Prosper Independent School District. Prosper ISD is ranked the number one school district in the area, and in 2017 received the highest rating of Met Standard from the Texas Education Agency. An on-site elementary school is now open.
